1. On 3 November 1948 the Ecuadoran Ambassador to Peru notified the Foreign Office in Quito that he had been advised that the Military Junta in Peru will respect treaties made by previous governments. The Ambassador suggested that the Ecuadoran Government recognize the new Peruvian administration, but to be neither among the first nor last to do so.
2. It was also ascertained that the Ecuadoran Ministry of Foreign Relations is apprehensive over the new Peruvian government and plans to follow a careful political policy in view of the military composition of the latter administration. The Ecuadoran Ministry is fearful that the terms of the Rio Protocol may not be respected.
